

Conference “Dignity & Demand”

5th of November 2009

Winter Hall, Royal College of Physicians, Number 6 Kildare Street, Dublin 2

9.30am Welcoming address
Mr Philip O'Connor, Director of Dublin Employment Pact, Dignity Initiating Partner

9.35am Chair: Opening Conference
Ms Denise Charlton, CEO Immigrant Council of Ireland, Dignity Initiating Partner

9.40am Dignity Showcase: Trafficking and Service Provision

Overview of Dignity Project - Ms Grainne Healy, Dignity Project Coordinator.

Sex Trafficking in Ireland - Ms Monica O'Connor, co-author of the research %Globalisation, Sex Trafficking and Prostitution: The Experiences of Migrant Women in Ireland+

Overview of Transnational Partnership

Ms Ann Hamilton, Dignity Project partner, Scotland
Glasgow Community and Safety Services

Ms Belen Garcia, Dignity Project partner, Spain
APRAMP and Madrid Municipality

Ms Vytaute Grybauskaite, Dignity project partner, Lithuania
Klaipeda Social and Psychological Services Centre

Key Lessons from Year 1, Emerging Model of Interagency Work, Identify key issues re legislation/victim ID/demand - Dr Jane Pillinger, Evaluator Dignity Project

Debate & Key Note Speaker: Policing Approaches

10.30am Sweden – legislation, trafficking and policing to curb demand
Detective Inspector Jonas Trolle, Stockholm Police Department

11.00am Response: Safety & Policing, Learning from Glasgow
Ann Hamilton, Glasgow Community & Safety Services & Alan Cunningham, Strathclyde Police

11.20am Irish Policing Approach
Garda National Immigration Bureau

11.50am Q & A

12 noon TEA/COFEE BREAK (15min)

12.15pm Political responses to tackling trafficking, prostitution and curbing demand

12.30 Q & A

1 pm Closing comments
Sr Stanislaus Kennedy, Founding member of the ICI, RSC

Dignity is an interagency Initiative working to deliver quality services to victims of sex-trafficking in Ireland. www.dublinpact.ie/dignity

