

Activities of the Inter-Institutional Coordination Group in Klaipėda City

Audronė Liesytė,
The head of the Social Support Division of Klaipėda City
Municipality Administration
24-08-2009, Klaipėda

Purpose of the Inter-Institutional Group

- ▶ Coordination of inter-institutional cooperation in the provision of methodological, information, consulting and technical assistance to the institutions and organizations providing support to women and children – victims of violence, human trafficking and forced prostitution.

Functions of the Inter-Institutional Group

- ▶ Discusses, disputes and analyzes issues related to domestic violence, human trafficking and forced prostitution problems in Klaipėda City;
- ▶ Provides methodological support and advice, together with law enforcement, health care, child rights experts, engages representatives of business, confession and local communities, non-governmental organizations, politicians, public persons;

Functions of the Inter-Institutional Group

- ▶ Collects and analyzes data and information on domestic violence and human trafficking provided by institutions, non-governmental organizations operating in the territory of Klaipėda Municipality;
- ▶ Initiates meetings, seminars and training sessions on topical issues of preventive work for Klaipėda municipal institutions, state authorities and non-governmental organizations;

Organization of work

- ▶ The working group meets as the need arises, and invites the representatives of the institutions competent to address the issue under consideration.

Activities of the Social Support Division

- Provides funding of social services – support to the victims of domestic violence and victims of human trafficking;
- Initiates attraction of the EU funds and support to the investment project – Establishment of Klaipėda Women’s Home;
- Arranges activities of the Inter-Institutional group;
- Supports projects of non-governmental organizations.
