

Department 1: collection, storage, processing and analysis of information related to especially grave crimes and grave crimes, committed resonance criminal offences, including offences related to criminal associations and (or) the activities and members of organized groups.

Department 2: prevention, disclosure, investigation, coordination of investigation of especially grave crimes and grave crimes, committed resonance criminal offences, including offences related to criminal associations and (or) the activities and members of organized groups.

Sub-department 3:

- investigates and prevents offences by criminal associations and (or) organized groups related to the crimes against economy, business order and financial system;
- investigates and prevents criminal offences related to human trafficking;
- investigates and prevents criminal offences related to pimping.

Department 4: prevention, disclosure, investigation, coordination of investigation of criminal offences related to illegal circulation of narcotic (psychotropic) substances.

Territorial Police Unit for Combating Human Trafficking
Lithuanian Criminal Police Bureau International Cooperation Board	←	Lithuanian Criminal Police Bureau, Department for Investigation of Human Trafficking

Functions of the Unit for Combating Human Trafficking:

- 1. Combating prostitution.
- 2. Prevention and investigation of criminal offences:
  - 2.1 Human Trafficking (Criminal Code of the Republic of Lithuania, Article 147);
  - 2.2 Pimping (Criminal Code of the Republic of Lithuania, Article 307).
- 3. Prevention.

Identification of a human trafficking victim:

- 1. Application by the victim.
- 2. Information received from third parties.
- Information received from the Lithuanian Criminal Police Bureau, Department for Investigation of Human Trafficking, International Cooperation Board or other territorial police units of.
- 4. Operational information obtained.